

Senator Doug Stoner

Senate District 6

Senator Doug Stoner has dedicated his public service to improving the quality of life for his hometown of Smyrna. He is a lifelong Cobb resident, graduating from Campbell High School and Kennesaw State University. He is the North American distributor for Exeloo, a world wide leader in automated public facilities.

In 2004, Sen. Stoner was elected to represent District 6 in the Georgia State Senate. In 2006, he was re-elected to the Senate with 61 percent of the vote. In 2008, Sen. Stoner was re-elected with over 60 percent of the vote.

During his service, he has received the Georgia Association of Emergency Medical Services Star of Life Legislative Award (2007 and 2008), Georgia Association of Educators Legislator of the Year (2005), Cobb County Association of Educators Cheryl C. Rice Friend of Education Award (2005), and Georgia Conservation Voters Environmental Leadership Award (2006 and 2008).

He is also actively involved with the United Methodist Children's Home, Kennesaw State University Political Science Board and the Downtown Smyrna Development Authority. He currently serves as the vice chairmen of the State Institutions and Property committee. He is a member of the Ethics, Regulated Industries and Utilities, Retirement, Urban Affairs and Transportation committees.

In the Transportation committee, he has been named as chair of the Intermodal, Rail and Transit subcommittee; overseeing legislation to improve Georgia's rail and transit networks.

Sen. Stoner and his wife, Della, reside in the city of Smyrna and currently are raising their daughters- Gray and Honor. Sen. Stoner is a member of the Smyrna First United Methodist Church.

January 2009